

INTERNSHIPS AT THE ALABAMA DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The Alabama Department of Archives and History (ADAH), the nation's oldest state department of archives and history, offers valuable work experience and educational opportunities through its internship program. Internships at the ADAH have been conceived to provide undergraduate and graduate students with a meaningful and realistic work experience that will complement their formal academic training. ADAH internships are unpaid, however students can obtain academic credit depending on the guidelines of their individual educational institutions.

DISCOVERY INTERNSHIP, FALL 2016

The ADAH will offer one Discovery Internship in Fall 2016. This internship is intended for undergraduate or graduate students who have little or no experience in the cultural heritage field. It will provide experience in a wide variety of work areas within the ADAH. Discovery interns will work 150 hours divided between five program areas:

- Appraisal/Records Management
- Archival Collections Management
- Museum Collections Management
- Public Programs/Education/Communications
- Reference

Applicants must be currently enrolled and in good academic standing at an accredited college or university. To apply for the Fall 2016 Discovery Internship, an application must be completed and returned with an unofficial transcript, resume, and cover letter by August 5, 2016. All paperwork should be sent to Mary Jo Scott at the Alabama Department of Archives and History, P.O. Box 300100, Montgomery, AL, 36130, or to maryjo.scott@archives.alabama.gov.

PROJECT INTERNSHIPS

Project internships are intended for undergraduate or graduate students. They offer the opportunity to work or assist with a specialized project in one of the sections of the ADAH. Project internships will be available during the Summer Semester and will be advertised February 2017.
