

SPONSORED BY
THE LATIN AMERICAN, CARIBBEAN, AND LATINO STUDIES PROGRAM
THE HISTORY DEPARTMENT • THE SEC VISITING TRAVEL GRANT PROGRAM

Lei Nº 3353
13 de Maio
de 1888

20
OCTOBER

Slave Emancipation & the Transformations
in Political Belonging in Nineteenth-Century Brazil

4:00 PM TO 6:00 PM

FERGUSON CENTER, ANDERSON ROOM #302

LECTURE

DR. CELSO CASTILHO

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF HISTORY AT VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY

Dr. Castilho is the author of Slave Emancipation and Transformations in Brazilian Political Citizenship (2016), and the co-editor of Tornando-se Livre: agentes históricos e lutes sociais no processo de abolição (2016). His current research examines the performance of Uncle Tom's Cabin in Mexico, the United States, and Brazil.

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC • LIGHT REFRESHMENTS WILL BE SERVED