Interim Courses

HY 300 – History of Games (3 hrs.)
001 – Clark 01:00 pm – 04:00 pm MTWRF TBA

The goal of this course is to use the games of various societies as a primary source, a “window” into portions of the human experience at differing times and places, and to incorporate experiential learning by adding gameplay and rule discussion to scholarly readings and class discussion. Thus, we will study a series of specific games, and the societies which produced them, focusing on games which involve mastery of rules and chance rather than on contests of physical skill or endurance.

HY 300 – History of Brazil in Film (3 hrs.)
002 – Cribelli 09:00 pm – 12:00 pm MTWRF 257 ten Hoor Hall

Why study Brazil? This South American nation is the fifth largest in the world in both geography and population. It is now home to the sixth largest economy (surpassing the United Kingdom in 2013). Brazil is also a nation rich in racial, cultural, geographical, biological, and linguistic diversity. In many ways, Brazil's history of slavery, plantation agriculture, immigration, and industrialization offer a compelling distant mirror for understanding the trajectory of U.S. history. Brazil also diverges from the rest of the Americas in important ways: it was the only New World colony to become the seat of a European court, and it was the largest slaveholding society in the Western Hemisphere and the last to abolish the institution (1888). This nation of 200 million is also home to the largest film and television industry in Latin America providing a rich variety of films that elucidate the history of this complex nation. Due to Brazil's rich cultural production of film, and the opportunities that the medium offers for experiencing a nation's language, geography, and construction of identity, the films selected here provide insightful lenses through which the many facets of Brazil come into view.

HY 300 – Special Studies in History (3 hrs.)
003 – Peterson 01:00 pm – 04:00 pm MTWRF TBA

HY 300 – Special Studies in History (3 hrs.)

HY 316 – Life & Legend of Abraham Lincoln (3 hrs.)
001 – Kohl 09:00 am – 12:00 pm MTWRF 253 ten Hoor Hall

This course will examine the life of the man often considered the representative American. Through historical works, Hollywood films, documentaries, photographs, and Lincoln's own writings, the course will attempt to discover both the "real" Lincoln and how Lincoln has been seen by subsequent generations of Americans

HY 335 – Handmade Nation: Knit and History (3 hrs.)
001 – Kopelson 01:00 pm – 04:00 pm MTWRF TBA

Explores the history, art, and politics of knitting. Students will learn to knit (or develop their skills as knitters) and also analyze knitting as a fascinating window onto the rest of the world. Topics explored include the craft's history, women's and men's work, the politics of art vs. craft, consumerism, globalization, and the craft's role in activism. Half of class time will be studio-based and half will focus on discussion of the readings.
